1. a special Cominform committee held a meeting in Gdynia,

Decisions were taken at the meeting to make a new effort to hinder the war preparations of the Western nations, and more specifically, to take measures against the new anti-Communist International Confederation of Free Trade Unions. Orders were reportedly given to crew of ships of all countries to sabotage all material transported to Europe in any manner; to create difficulties and delays in loading and unloading such war goods; and to initiate other workers regarding the ideals of Communism.

2. The following Communist propaganda distribution points were designated at the Gdynia conference:

- a. The harbor of Rosario (Argentina) for the Atlantic area. Printed propaganda has been taken there by Greek crew members of the SS ACROPOLIS, flying a Panamanian flag.
- b. Marseilles and Genoa for the Central and Western Mediterranean area.
- c. Haifa and Beirut for the Eastern Mediterranean area.
